Letter dated 25 November 1998 from the Legal Counsel addressed to the Permanent Representative of Iraq to the United Nations

I have the honour to refer to resolution 1210 (1998), adopted by the Security Council on 24 November 1998, by which the Council decided that the relevant provisions of resolution 986 (1995) of 14 April 1995 would remain in force for a new period of 180 days beginning at 00.01 hours, Eastern Standard Time on 26 November 1998. I should also like to refer to an exchange of letters between the Secretariat of the United Nations and the Permanent Mission of Iraq to the United Nations dated 30 May 1998 extending, in the light of Security Council resolution 1153 (1998) of 20 February 1998, the Memorandum of Understanding of 20 May 1996 between the Secretariat of the United Nations and the Government of Iraq on the implementation of Security Council resolution 986 (1995) for a period of 180 days, effective 30 May 1998 (see S/1998/449).

In view of the foregoing, I have the honour to propose that the provisions of the Memorandum of Understanding of 20 May 1996 be extended for an additional period of 180 days, effective 26 November 1998.

It is understood that the distribution plans which have already been approved but have not yet been implemented shall continue to apply for goods purchased with oil revenues generated under the respective Security Council resolutions.

If your Government agrees to this proposal, I suggest that the present letter, and your reply thereto, shall constitute an agreement between the Secretariat of the United Nations and the Government of Iraq.
